this volume discusses mamluk historical texts with an emphasis on literary stylistic analysis basically ignoring issues of factuality versus fictivity none of the authors set out to write fiction nor would their audience have received their accounts as such the events depicted were a matter of historical record but their meaning was geared both to contemporary and to general concerns the fact of telling them is part and parcel of the historian s task the means of telling them has to do with the historian s choice of style and style is all important in conveying meaning were these accounts not considered true the purpose behind their telling and the meaning they convey would arguably be lost but were they not told in the most effective manner their meaning might not be clearly grasped
